

The John Ulrich Piano Series
Presents
FREDERICK HODGES

For a return engagement -with soloist Ann Gibson
Sunday, March 18th at 2:00PM
Advanced reservations required $25.00 per person

California native
Frederick Hodges
specializes in the piano
music and popular
songs of the ragtime
era, the 1920's and the 1930's.

Classically trained and groomed for a career as a concert pianist, Frederick was lured to another musical path when he found a stack of turn-of-the century sheet music in his grandmother's piano bench. Exposure to the rollicking rhythms of player pianos and 78RPM records sealed his fate, and he set out to master the ragtime and novelty piano playing styles that had captivated him.

For more than 20 years, Frederick has performed solo, and with jazz or ragtime ensembles such as the Peter Mintun Orchestra, the Royal Society Jazz Orchestra & the Crown Synchronators. He performs live on stage, at society parties, and has been featured on television and radio programs. He has entertained royalty, stars of stage and screen, captains of industry, and even Tin Pan Alley composers. He is a favorite at jazz and ragtime festivals around the country. Those great old tunes of George Gershwin, Cole Porter, Irving Berlin, Billy Mayerl, Jelly Roll Morton and many more all flow beautifully from his practiced fingers.

Please register promptly, as seating is limited. Tickets will be held at the door. Doors close & the concert will begin promptly at 2PM.

Refreshments will be served at intermission.

The Packard Showroom will be open for viewing, along with a modest Petroliana Collection and other items of (neat old stuff)-all survivors of a simpler time.
