

Larisa Migachyov's "May Day" Concert in Sutter Creek

Save the date! May 1 at 2:00 p.m., Larisa Migachyov, most recently from Palo Alto, will be giving a piano ragtime concert at Arlo "Chip" Lusby II's home, located at 50 Gold Dust Trail in Sutter Creek. Larisa's concert will include pieces by Scott Joplin, Joseph Lamb, William Bolcom, Willie "the Lion" Smith, Eubie Blake, Zez Confrey, as well as some of her own original compositions.

Known for her very lyrical style of playing, Larisa is a perfect match for the intimate setting of Chip's grand Victorian home. She has appeared in the San Antonio, Eau Claire, Scott Joplin, Sutter Creek and the West Coast Ragtime Festivals. Tickets are $10 ahead of time, $12 at the door. For more information and reservations please call Chip at: 626-806-3021.

Here is how it is going to work. Come for the concert and stay on for a pot-luck dinner--you might want to bring a dish to share. Then, any and all players/strummers/singers are invited to keep the music going throughout the evening on into the night and any of the rest are welcome to stay and cheer on the musicians. The first five out-of-towners who call Chip for reservations, can spend the night in his marvelous Victorian home. With four pianos going and any other instruments joining in, the roof raising Skunk Hollow Ragtime Retreat will be fun for all.
